12. Changes to these Terms

The Company may make changes to these Terms from time to time but will not use this Clause 12 to make the services available through GHM substantially different from that which was reasonably expected of the Company or to render no services at all. The Company shall notify You via the e-mail address that You provided during the registration of Your account if the Company changes these Terms. If You are dissatisfied with any of the changes, You are free to terminate these Terms and Your access to the GHM.

13. Other important information

- 13.1 The Company shall not be in breach of these Terms if performance of any of the Company's obligations under these Terms is prevented in full or in part or delayed by an Event of Force Majeure.
- 13.2 These Terms constitute the entire agreement between the Parties in relation to its subject matter. It replaces and extinguishes all prior agreements, draft agreements, arrangements, collateral warranties, collateral contracts, statements, assurances, representations and undertakings of any nature made by or on behalf of the Parties, whether oral or written, in relation to that subject matter. The Parties acknowledge that in entering into these Terms neither have relied upon any oral or written statements, collateral or other warranties, assurances, representations or undertakings which were made by or on behalf of the other Party in relation to the subject-matter of these Terms at any time before entering into these Terms (together "Pre-Contractual Statements"), other than those that are set out in these Terms. Each Party hereby waives all rights and remedies which might otherwise be available to that Party in relation to such Pre-Contractual Statements, provided that nothing in this Clause 13.2 shall exclude or restrict the liability of either Party arising out of its pre-contract fraudulent misrepresentation or fraudulent concealment.
- 13.3 If any provision of these Terms shall be found by any court or administrative body of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or unenforceable, the invalidity or unenforceability of such provision shall not affect the other provisions of these Terms and all provisions not affected by such invalidity or unenforceability shall remain in full force and effect. The Parties hereby agree to attempt to substitute for any invalid or unenforceable provision a valid or enforceable provision which achieves to the greatest extent possible the economic, legal and commercial objectives of the invalid or unenforceable provision. Further and in particular the Parties acknowledge and agree that any Clause that imposes a restriction on either Party shall constitute an entirely separate and independent restriction and that the duration, extent and application of each restriction are no greater than is reasonable and necessary for the protection of the interests of the Parties but that, if any such restriction is adjudged by any court or authority of competent jurisdiction to be void or unenforceable but such restriction would be valid if part of the wording thereof were to be deleted and/or the period thereof were to be reduced and/or the area dealt with thereby were to be reduced, the said restriction shall apply within the jurisdiction of that court or competent authority with such modifications as are necessary to make it valid and effective.
- 13.4 Each of the provisions and part-provisions of these Terms operates separately. If any court or relevant authority decides that any of them are unlawful or unenforceable, the remaining provision, or part-provision as applicable, will remain in full force and effect.
- 13.5 If the Company fails to insist that You perform any of Your obligations under these Terms, or if the Company does not enforce its rights against You, or if the Company delays in doing so, that will not mean that the Company has waived its rights against You and will not mean that You do not have to comply with those obligations. If the Company does waive a default by You, it will only do so in writing, and that will not mean that the Company will automatically waive any later default by You.

- 13.6 Notwithstanding any other provision of these Terms, none of the Clauses shall be relied upon or enforceable under the Contracts (Rights of Third parties) Act 1999 by any third party who is not a party to these Terms.
- 13.7 You may not assign, transfer or sub-licence any of Your rights or obligations under these Terms, without our prior written consent.
- 13.8 These Terms shall be governed by English law and each Party agrees that any dispute (contractual or non-contractual) arising out of or in connection with these Terms including any question regarding its existence, validity or termination shall be submitted to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of England.
